

Alf Thomassen – Sector Expert and Team Leader,
Water Technology Advisory

Organisation: Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Royal Danish Embassy.

Education:

Alf holds a degree in Marine Engineering from Fredericia Marine Engineering School, achieved in 1993.

In 1998 he received a diploma in commerce from Haderslev Business School in Denmark.

Experience:

From June 2009 Alf Thomassen held the role of project manager at Desmi Danmark, until December 2010. In 2011, Alf started as the team leader for Nukissiorfiit in Greenland, for 3 months. Hereafter, he worked as a Waste Water Engineer for Odsherred Supply until March of 2016. April 2017, Alf took on the role as Project Manager for Lyngby-Taarbæk Supply A/S, where he worked for seven years.

In May 2024, Alf took on his current role as Consultant in Water Technology Advisory Sector, at the Royal Danish Embassy in Warsaw.

