

Rafał Tarłowski – Sector Expert, Healthcare

Organisation: Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Royal Danish Embassy in Warsaw.

Education:

Rafał holds a degree in Medicine (M.D.) from Silesia Medical School in Katowice, awarded in 1992. Rafał has also attended the Canadian Executive Master of Business Administration Programme at SGH – Warsaw School of Economics. Rafał has furthermore attended INSEAD Business School.

Experience:

Rafał is an experienced healthcare consultant with expertise in prevention, treatment, and health policy. Skilled in intercultural communication, negotiation, and conflict resolution. Proficient in analysing political and social health contexts for informed decision-making. Adapt at managing projects and collaborating with diverse stakeholders. Knowledgeable about global health issues and international frameworks, with a focus on healthcare diplomacy and fostering international cooperation. In November 2022 Rafał started in the position of Senior Healthcare Consultant at the Embassy of Denmark, in Warsaw.